

As an account owner, you have had the opportunity to designate a representative of your choice for your account. Your designated representative on the enclosed statement may be associated with a broker-dealer firm as previously disclosed by your designated representative.

Unless you object by completing this form and returning it to us, Community National Bank may make information about account activity available to the broker-dealer and their respective information and data management affiliate(s) to assist them with their supervisory responsibilities required under applicable rules and regulations. This form may be sent to Community National Bank at 225 Main St, Seneca, KS 66538 or by fax to 785-336-6880.

If your current representative changes to a different broker-dealer or you change your designated representative, the information will be released to the new broker-dealer and their respective information and data management affiliate(s).

No action is required if you do not object to CNB releasing your account information to your broker/dealer and their respective information and data management affiliate(s).

I do not want my account information released to the broker-dealer and their respective information and data management affiliate(s) associated with my designated representative.
